Traineeships and Apprenticeships:

The Traineeships and Apprenticeships program provides a public funding contribution towards the cost of training and assessment for eligible Queensland apprentices and trainees. The government will pay a portion of the training costs for the course directly to the chosen training provider up to a set amount. You will be required to pay a co-contribution fee to the registered training organisation.

The Student Co-contribution Fee is calculated at $1.60 per nominal hour for each Unit of Competency delivered for the qualification and therefore vary depending on the qualification and electives chosen. The Student Co-Contribution Fee may be paid on behalf of the student by their employer or a third party. Students under 25 years of age are exempt due to being funded by the Queensland Governments Free Apprenticeships for Under 25s initiative.
